A Letter from Pastor Rudolph

Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; and he fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan.

- Luke 17:16

What an amazing display of faith! This leper was one of ten who were cleansed when they cried out to Jesus, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us! (Luke 17:16) These lepers had been outcasts for a long time, longing to rejoin society and enter into God's temple once again. How long they must have gone without going to church! So Jesus intervened. He saved them and brought them back into the Church community once again, telling them to go to the priests at the temple to prove that they had been healed.

Yet one of them did something different. I'm sure the 9 others thought it was weird that he seemed to ignore Jesus' directions. He said, Go and show yourselves to the priests, yet this leper turned around and went back to Jesus! The 9 may have even thought themselves to be doing the right thing. Jesus thought different. When this one leper came back, he fell down at Jesus' feet, giving Him thanks and praise for all that Jesus had done for him. But why?

As we talked about a few weeks ago in the sermon, this leper returned to His Master, Jesus, the Great High Priest, the one who healed him of his leprosy. Our Master is so very gracious, giving to us again and again everything we need for this body and life. But what do we do with those gifts? For me, and I'm sure for many of you, I tend to take the gift and run off with it to do my own thing, never thinking about where it came from. Sometimes I don't even think to recognize that it was God who gave me the gift in the first place!

And so we have this challenge for us: to recognize the "daily bread" that we prayed for and that God has indeed given to us by grace. When you recognize these gifts, take a moment to stop what you're doing, turn around, and run Jesus. Let's fall at the feet of Jesus together this month to give Him thanks and praise. Martin Luther gave us a list of everyday things that we should give thanks for. Take a moment this month and pray through this list. Don't despair about the ones you may not have, but instead pray for what you don't have while still giving thanks for the "daily bread" that God has already given you!

Give thanks for all the ways God has worked in our lives, from the simple paycheck we get to the great salvation we have been given! When you gather for Thanksgiving with friends or family, take a moment and recognize God for the great gifts you have been given, whether it's the mashed potatoes and turkey in front of you or whether it's for the family, friends, and other great people God has seated next to you! We all have been given great blessings by our loving and caring Heavenly Father, even if it's not easy to see them sometimes. But don't wait for Thanksgiving to get started! Stop what you're doing, turn toward Jesus, fall at His feet with the faithful leper, and pray with us, O give thanks to the LORD, for He is good, and His mercy endures forever. Amen.

Thoughts and Musings from an Aging Pastor

By Pastor Don Wunrow

Years ago, I was a circuit counselor to about six churches and I remember a couple of situations like we are experiencing here at Peace. I write this with the hope that it will create some understanding, patience, and desire to help in whatever way we can as it relates to our one pastor.

Pastor Rudolph is a relatively new graduate from our Fort Wayne seminary and since his installation as a pastor here at Peace he has worked alongside Pastor Teeple. For a while, the two pastors shared pastoral responsibilities of our congregation. Now, all of the responsibilities rest upon Pastor Rudolph's shoulders: a new sermon every week, sick and hospital calls, evening and night calls from those needing help, and those just wanting to chat. This can really be an overwhelming situation. Therefore, I ask that all of us, including me, pray daily for Pastor Rudolph. Give him some space, understanding, and words or encouragement and love. He is our pastor sent to us by God Himself.

PEACE FINANCIAL UPDATE

These figures are YEAR-TO-DATE after the third quarter of 2025
(January-September)

	ACTUAL	BUDGET	OVER/UNDER
Revenue	$433,486.73	$411,105.00	+$22,381.43
Expenditures	$474,827.87	$492,007.13	-$17,179.26
Loss	-$41,341.14	-$80,902.13	+$39,560.99

Our revenue (envelopes+plate+interest) has been consistently over budget this year while we have been able to keep our expenses under budget. We are still recording a loss year-to-date, but the loss is not as great as we anticipated. These numbers do not include gifts that have been given to various funds, ministries or the capital campaign/mortgage reduction. Thank you all for your FAITHFUL giving!!

MORTGAGE/CAPITAL CAMPAIGN UPDATE

At the Voters' Assembly on Sunday, September 7, the voters passed a motion that gave the Peace Board of Directors permission to pay off the remaining principal balance of the construction loan at the end of November 2025 from various financial accounts.

As of October 8, 2025, our principal balance on the construction loan was $78,585.92. We are hoping to receive close to $35,000 toward pledges in these last few months of 2025, which would leave less than $50,000 to pay on our construction principal. Outstanding pledge balance updates have been placed in your mailboxes.

Advent Seasonal Concert

Old Crown Brass Band

Wednesday, December 3

6:30pm

Peace Lutheran Church Sanctuary Fremont, IN

Back by popular demand! The Old Crown Brass Band will be performing here at Peace on Wednesday, December 3. Please join us for this evening of live music in anticipation of the Advent season. The concert, formerly "Advent by Candlelight," will be followed by refreshments and fellowship.

Snacks Needed

Following our Advent Seasonal Concert will be light refreshments in the Fellowship Hall. We are looking for appetizer-type finger foods and desserts. If you would like to donate items for this event, there is a sign-up sheet located on the information desk in the East Lobby.

FAREWELL AND GODSPEED, PASTOR TEEPLE!

BEST WISHES TO THE TEEPLE FAMILY AS THEY ENTER THE MISSION FIELD

After over 10 years of faithful service to Peace Lutheran Church, Pastor Jeff Teeple and his wife, Gina, recently accepted calls to serve as missionaries in Frankfurt, Germany. Pastor Teeple will serve as missionary pastor to Trinity Lutheran Church, an English-speaking congregation that serves families from around the world. As communications project manager, Gina will work with the Eurasia communication specialist, missionaries and LCMS Communications to support projects in the region and facilitate communication to supporters and donors.

The Teeple family's last day serving at Peace was Sunday, September 28. Peace members, both past and present, wish them well as they prepare for this unique ministry opportunity!

ACTSFW FOOD & CLOTHING CO-OP

Seminary Co-Op Donations

The Food Co-Op at Concordia Theological Seminary is open to all seminary students and their families. Food and household items are available to these families at no charge. Students volunteer service time for the privilege of shopping. The Food Co-Op is set up like a small grocery store.

Peace members may contribute donations to the Food Co-op by placing items in the labeled basket under the mailboxes in the West Lobby.

This month's donation wish list items are:

- hand soap
- gluten-free food items

Blessing Boxes

Special thanks to Dean and Jeanette Meridew for all their hard work overseeing the blessing boxes project.

Located just inside the entrance of our west parking lot, these blessing boxes serve as a small scale, outside self-serve food pantry.

Items in the boxes are available to anyone struggling with hunger or food insecurity. Items may be taken anonymously and without judgement or cost. If you, or someone you know, are challenged by an over-stretched grocery budget, we encourage you to stop by and take all that you need to see you through.

The blessing boxes provide a special opportunity to serve others in our community. Peace members are welcomed to place non-perishable food items inside the boxes at anytime. Donation items may also be place in the boxes at anytime. Donation items may also be place in the designated basket under the mailboxes in the West Lobby. Suggested food items for the blessing boxes include:

- items that can be made with water such as instant mashed potatoes or dry pasta
- proteins such as canned tuna, chicken or beef
- breakfast cereal
- creamy peanut butter
- no glass containers or jars, as these may break in colder weather

For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink...

"Truly, I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of Mine, you did for Me."

-Matthew 25:35,40

Thanksgiving is almost here and we have so much to be thankful for! This is a great time to thank God for our blessings of food and shelter and to share our gifts with others in need.

Peace Lutheran has 3 different ministry opportunities to help those in need of food assistance:

1. Blessing Boxes
2. Seminary Food Donations
3. Family Promise

Please add one or more of these ministries to your "To Do List" and also include them on your prayer list.

In September, Peace Lutheran provided Family Promise residents with 40+ servings of food, 94 rolls of toilet paper, 12 rolls of paper towels, daily table prayers, scripture readings and words of encouragement.

Our next opportunity to serve Family Promise will be the week of November 17. Watch the bulletin and information desk for more details. Please contact Connie Sweeney at (260)665-5146 with any questions.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

STEPHEN MINISTRY AND SUNSHINE BOXES

Recently, our Peace Stephen Ministers lovingly put together Sunshine Boxes for their care receivers. These boxes are meant to provide comfort and peace for the care receiver recipients who are experiencing difficulties in their lives. These boxes are meant to show God's love for us through the five senses: sight, taste, touch, smell, sound. The boxes contain honey candy, sewn bookmarks, and scented items among other blessings.

Stephen Ministry is an essential part of Peace's mission and ministry. It has the potential to change lives of those in the congregation and the community by providing one-to-one care to those experiencing a difficult time in life. The following are Stephen Ministers at Peace: Patti Baals, Jennifer Shirey, Anne Griffith, Scott Miller, Gerry Ferrell, Jeanette Meridew, Cinda Gerbers, Patti Haffner, Chris Goeglein, Sharon Aldrich. If you have any questions about Stephen Ministry, don't hesitate to ask our leaders, Ellen Luepke and Rick Kirkton.

THE OLD SANCTUARY CROSS The Blank Shield of Judas Iscariot

Among the many traditions of apostolic shields and symbols, few are as haunting as the blank shield of Judas Iscariot. As we have seen with the other symbols and shields, the apostles were often assigned coats of arms as a way of symbolizing their virtues, missions, or martyrdoms. But Judas, the disciple who betrayed Christ, was typically given no symbol or coat of arms at all. Instead, his shield was left bare — a stark, empty field.

This absence of imagery carried profound meaning. While other apostles' shields proclaimed faith, courage, or sacrifice, Judas Iscariot's shield became a silent emblem of betrayal, dishonor, and the void left by broken loyalty. In medieval times, a blank shield was not neutral but damning: it marked a man with no true allegiance, a knight stripped of honor.

Today, the blank shield of Judas serves as a reminder of the power of symbols — not just in what they depict, but also in what they refuse to show. The absence of a mark can itself be the loudest statement of all.

Wee Creations
Early Learning Ministry of Peace Lutheran

In October, we invited several community helpers to visit our classroom. We were especially excited when the Fremont Fire Department. The kids got to sit in the fire truck, see the firemen in full uniform and learn about what to do if there was fire at home or at school.

We were also excited to see Officer Hamm from Fremont Police Department. He showed us the inside of his police car and all of his lights!

We were so blessed to have a beautiful fall day to enjoy our visit.

Dove Tales

*I will praise you, LORD, with all my heart;
I will tell of all the marvelous things You have done.
Psalm 9:1 NLT*

I'm so thankful, Friends!

I'm thankful for Amber and the faithful work she's done for so many years – and keeps doing! I'm thankful for Pastor Teeple, Deaconess Gina and their children. I will miss them so much and know God will take care of them as He takes care of Pastor Rudolph, Tirzah, their family, and all of us at Peace! Then there's my fellow Dove teammates who teach and care for me, who help me do my work and play with me. They even take time to keep learning new ways to help the people we meet. There's you, my friends, who love on me and encourage me. Surprises from the community come, too, like this note: "...If I am able to help, I am committed. I have personally witnessed how impactful this ministry is and how it can positively affect people's lives. Blessings to you, every member of the team, and, of course, Dove."

Every one of the places I get to go to, I'm thankful for each of them. There was the Steuben Heritage Club – their employees and I clicked right away. At Cameron Hospital, FOUR patients asked me to visit their rooms to comfort them! One of my friends at RISE wanted my number so if I ever got lost and she found me she could get me home. That is love. I thank God!

I met an exchange student from France at Fremont High School. At Ryan Park, a little boy brought me a picture he colored of me even though he didn't get to visit me that day. There were lots of smiles and sharing of burdens, like that of a boy who was upset that he is moving. He spent a long time hugging me and smoothing my fur. A Carlin Park teacher said my "twin" is her furry kid and is often mistaken for me. She tells them, "No, but I know the REAL Dove." Isn't that funny? I even calmed Trine students before they went to interviews.

We went new places, too, like KC Learning Center and Cameron Woods Senior Living Community. I made many new friends. And God is with me and our team all the time. ALL THE TIME! God, I am so thankful for You!

Let's thank Him together together at church!

Love,

Dove

To observe National Family Caregivers Month 2025, here are five things you can do in November to encourage and support a family caregiver in your life. However you choose to show appreciation to a family caregiver during family caregiver awareness month, make a special effort to make life a bit easier for the family caregivers you know.

How can you show appreciation to a family caregiver?

Provide respite care.

If it's once a week or just once — period — caregivers can benefit greatly from a break from their work. Spend a morning with their loved one while they run errands or take some time for themselves. The gift of your time is priceless.

Check in regularly.

Let them talk about their experiences without offering advice or casting an opinion. Let them know that you see the work they are doing and the value it brings to the family and community. Remember, you don't have to fix their problems. Just being able to talk openly and without judgment is often the support they need.

Be specific with your offers.

Avoid saying "let me know if you need anything." Instead, make a specific offer of help. When caregivers are overwhelmed, it can be difficult to ask for help, so the more specific you can be, the better.

Help with chores.

Bring a meal, clean the house, help with laundry, do yard work, or tackle any other life tasks that are hard for caregivers to get to. This helps ease their burden and makes them feel supported.

Keep inviting them.

Even if you know they can't attend an outing or gathering, continued invitations will make a caregiver feel less isolated and let them know that you are thinking of them and value their presence. And you never know when they might be able to make it happen!

Offer encouragement.

A thoughtful card or text message, or even a small gift, can show that you recognize the gift of their service. Be positive about how you appreciate their efforts and see what a great job they're doing.
